COME HOME

COME HOME TO FIRSTFRUITS, IT'S WHERE YOU BELONG! WE ADDED THAT NEW TAGLINE TO OUR WEBSITE THIS PAST YEAR. IT HAS A DOUBLE MEANING, IF YOU REALLY THINK ABOUT IT.

On the one hand, it's an encouraging declaration.

It sums up our hopes and dreams for this new year - to encourage women to see Firstfruits as their home. A safe and comfortable space to just be who God made us to be. A predictable and nurturing environment to question and search. A community where all belong.

Periodically, we survey the women who attend our events. We ask them to describe their experience and tell us what keeps them coming back to Firstfruits. Over and over again, we hear that Firstfruits fills a void they weren't even aware they had, or had a hard time verbalizing. The community that is fostered through the time spent at Firstfruits is just what they have been longing for. It fills a deep desire to belong, to feel connected, supported, and valued.

On the other hand, our new tagline is a statement of spiritual truth. God longs for all of his sons and daughters to find those places where He can make Himself known. Places where the Holy Spirit is welcome, where God's love is experienced, not just taught, and where that love is modeled through the support of a loving community. Those are the places where we should spend a lot of time. We really belong in those kinds of places.

We have been working hard to make Firstfruits one of those kinds of places. With the generous support of so many, we have been able to create and sustain this unique home. A spiritual home. We recommit to that work every day as we vision for the future and discern God's direction.

Come home to Firstfruits, it's where you belong!

"As women/moms we are generally taking care of others. My day at Firstfruits gave me a chance to take care of myself and my soul! I found the day to be refreshing, motivational, informative and inspirational,"
